
PRIORITY
PROGRAMS,
ACTIVITIES,
AND PROJECTS
CONSISTENT
WITH THE PRESIDENT'S
KEY RESULT
AREAS (KRAs)
AND THE PUBLIC
EXPENDITURE
MANAGEMENT
REFORMS

For 2017 – 2018, the priority programs, activities, and projects (PAPs) of the Commission are based on the mandates provided by the Philippine Constitution as well as other powers and functions stipulated in new human rights laws, such as: the Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act of 2006; Anti-Torture Act of 2009; Magna Carta of Women Act of 2009; International Humanitarian Law of 2009; Anti-Enforced Disappearance Law of 2012; and, Human Rights Violations Victims Reparation and Recognition Act of 2013. Relatively, the United Nations (UN) Declaration on Human Rights Education and Training as well as Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) or Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) on Education and Training, Presidential Memorandum Orders, Executive Order 134 on the Observance of the National Humanitarian Law Day, and RA 9201 on the Observance of the National Human Rights Consciousness Week provide for the implementation of the priority PAPs in the Commission.

The Commission’s PAPs on its Operations are categorized according to the major final outputs (MFOs), namely, Human Rights Protection Services, Human Rights Promotion Services, and Human Rights Policy Advisory Services.:

Human Rights Promotion Services

- Activity 1: Provision of technical services on human rights education to the government particularly the law enforcement and security intelligence (LESI) agencies, academe, civil service, and local governments
- Activity 2: Continuing development of client-based human rights education and training programs and modules/teaching aids learners' aids/kits, and curricula
- Activity 3: Delivery of human rights education and training services to priority sectors
- Activity 4: Popularization of international human rights treaties and national implementation laws such as: Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act of 2006, International Humanitarian Law of 2009; Anti-Torture Act of 2009; Magna Carta of Women Act of 2009; Anti-Enforced Disappearance Act of 2012; and Human Rights Victims Reparation and Recognition Act of 2013.
- Activity 5: Celebration of human rights milestone events/declarations and other human rights related mandatory celebrations
- Activity 6: Conduct of human rights information dissemination activities
- Activity 7: Building nationwide human rights information and education infrastructures and partnerships with the CSOs, NGOs, media, academe, youth, peoples' organizations and business sectors.
- Activity 8: Development and production of multi-mediated information and education materials on human rights.

Human Rights Policy Advisory Services

- Activity 1: Conduct of human rights policy studies and researches
- Activity 2: Development and issuance of human rights advisories to the government
- Activity 3: Formulation and issuance of comments, position, stand on bills, laws, local ordinances including drafting of proposed human rights policies/laws
- Activity 4: Formulation and issuance of human rights measures such as rules of procedures, guidelines, and other human rights mechanisms to implement human rights laws and policies, such as: Gender and Development; and, Anti-Enforced Disappearance
- Activity 5: Monitoring and reporting of government compliance with all its human rights treaty obligations to include preparation of human rights situation reports and independent reporting to UN human rights bodies

Good Governance

And

Peace and Rule of Law

Furthermore, the PAPs under General Administration and Support as well as Support to Operations are likewise presented as follows:

General Administration and Support

- Activity 1: Instituting organizational reforms covering structure, management, and internal processes
- Activity 2: Personnel administration and human resource development and employee welfare benefits
- Activity 3: Financial management and resource generation
- Activity 4: Procurement and maintenance of physical facilities and provision of general services

Support to Operations

- Activity 1: Planning and policy formulation
- Activity 2: Monitoring and evaluation
- Activity 3: Policy research and development
- Activity 4: Statistical services
- Activity 5: Information systems development
- Activity 6: Management systems development
- Activity 7: Issuance of human rights certification/clearance
- Activity 8: Management of cooperation programs and projects

Additionally, there are specialized and thematic Human Rights Program consists of the following specialty centers:

- Child Rights Center – This center serves as the focal point of coordination and facilitation of CHR functions, programs and activities relating to child rights.
- Center for Gender Equality and Women’s Human Rights – The Center serves as the central point of coordination for the implementation of the CHR’s role as Gender Ombud.
- Center for Economic, Social and Cultural Rights – The Center shall serve as the focal point for all programs, activities and and projects of the CHR in relation to business and human rights and the UN Sustainable Development Goals.
- Center for Crisis, Conflict and Humanitarian Rights – The Center shall serve as the Secretariat to coordinate the implementation of mechanisms to protect people who are affected by crisis and conflict brought by armed conflicts, disasters and emergency situations.